Excerpt of pertinent information:

1. The Prime Minister will order Victor Dusa, Communist Prefect of Constanta, who installed himself by means of an armed coup, to Bucharest for report. The Prime Minister is alarmed over numerous reports that Dusa is conducting himself as if he were backed by the Russians.
2. A similar situation is said to exist in Floesti, where "workers" have ousted the local prefect and installed another. The Prime Minister is undecided what action to take, because reports indicate that the new man enjoys the respect and confidence of the majority of the Floesti community. He is also asking this man to report to him.
3. The above actions of the Prime Minister were apparently taken in his capacity as Minister of the Interior, who selects the prefects of the various districts.
